

A full-page background image of violinist Tyler Carson. He is standing on a large, light-colored rock formation, playing a violin. He has long, wavy blonde hair and is wearing a black t-shirt and white pants. The background features the iconic red rock cliffs of Sedona under a clear blue sky. The text 'INTERNATIONALLY TOURING VIOLINIST' is overlaid in a small, orange, sans-serif font on the left side of the image.

INTERNATIONALLY TOURING VIOLINIST

Tyler Carson

► WATCH PERFORMANCE

Tyler Carson is an internationally touring violinist known for delivering powerful, emotionally driven performances across stages worldwide. A prodigy from a young age, he has performed across multiple countries — blending classical mastery with modern expression to create a sound that resonates with diverse audiences. Now returning to the global stage, Tyler brings a unique performance style shaped by world touring, award-winning documentary work, and his signature residency in Sedona's iconic red rock landscapes.

- Featured on CBS Mornings — nationally broadcast live performance
- Performed live for 60,000 people at the Commonwealth Games
- Soloist with the Victoria Symphony Orchestra at age 13
- International touring artist — Ireland, India, Canada, and beyond
- Collaborated with Sandy Kelly, Johnny Cash's touring partner
- Award-winning documentary subject — "Living Music" (multi-festival run)
- Featured: Sedona Monthly · Discover the Region · Red Rock News · Verde Valley